NARROGIN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Narrogin Senior High School
Gray Street
Narrogin WA 6312
Telephone: (08) 9881 9300
Fax: (08) 9881 2170
Email: nshsmail@nshs.wa.edu.au
Contact: Mark Davis
Careers & Vocational Education Officer

Narrogin Senior High School students may complete a variety of Vocational Education and Training programmes allowing them to achieve a wide range of Certificate qualifications that are recognised Australia wide.
Students from Narrogin Senior High School who have studied these programs have a strong history of successfully moving on to employment, traineeships, apprenticeships and higher study or training.

- TRAINING2work*Automotive and Community Services Programmes
- Workplace Learning
- Aboriginal School Based Traineeships
- School Based Traineeships

Narrogin Senior High School offers certificate courses in:

- Automotive
- Industrial Skills
- Business
- Preparation for Entry into Nursing
- Community Services
- Children’s Services
- Education Support
- Construction
- Creative Industries
- Visual Arts and Contemporary Craft
- Health Services Assistance
- Information Technology
- Furnishing
- Textiles Clothing Footwear
- Engineering
- Conservation & Land Management.

These courses may vary from Certificate I to Certificate IV level.

OTHER VOCATIONAL TRAINING

- Recreational Skippers’ Ticket
- Building and Construction “White Card” Safety Awareness Training
- First Aid Certificates
- ChemCert Training